

A typical day in the life of a Tax Intern with Eide Bailly might include the following:

- Assist in preparing a high-level return for a multi-million dollar manufacturing company.
- Work with awesome professionals to ensure individual and business tax returns are completed correctly and by the required deadline.
- Assist in the gathering of relevant tax-related information from a client in the construction industry so an accurate tax return can be prepared.
- Look at tax situations from various angles to ensure the maximum tax benefit is applied.
- Network and build relationships across the Firm.

Who You Are

- You are a multi-tasking master, and there has never been a deadline you could not meet.
- You have interest in a variety of industries.
- You hold yourself to the highest professional standards and maintain strict client confidentiality.
- You enjoy keeping up-to-date on the ever-changing tax industry's regulations and policies.
- In addition to all of this, you are working toward a Bachelor's degree in Accounting and are on track to sit for your CPA license.

Must be authorized to work in the United States permanently without the requirement of sponsorship at any point in the future.

Please submit your resume and transcripts (an unofficial copy is fine) when applying for this position. In order to be considered for the position, you will also need to create a profile and submit your resume for Req #203 at www.eidebailly.com/careers

Eide Bailly LLP offers a competitive salary and health insurance to our interns.

Eide Bailly LLP is proud to be an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, veteran status, or any other status protected under local, state or federal laws.