2016 HONORS SUMMER STUDY ABROAD

Greece

NORTHWESTERN
COLLEGE

"I'm excited about providing students with the opportunity to visit a place that has had such an enduring impact on all of us. The ancient Greeks considered their homeland to be the center of the world. In many ways, it still is." -Prof. John Vonder Bruegge

2016 Honors Summer Study Abroad

Greece

GEN 350 Greece: Antiquity and Modernity

- ◆ Summer 2016 (Tentative May 16-June 6)
- ◆ 4 credits
- ◆ Prerequisite: membership in the NWC Honors program or permission of instructor; acceptance into the program and GEN 316 (2 credits)

*Note: GEN 316 is the pre-trip class for this program (2nd half of spring semester)

- ◆ Fulfills cross-cultural gen-ed requirement
- ◆ All majors welcome!

Virtually every academic discipline—from art to politics, theater to athletics, science to religion—can trace its roots, in some fashion, back to ancient Greece. That means today's college students are perpetually surrounded by Greek cultural and intellectual influences whether they realize it or not. The poet Shelley once said, "We are all Greeks." To understand better who we are, we are going back to the place from whence we came.

Course Requirements

- ◆ Attend pre-trip class meetings
- ◆ Site Tours and Paper Presentation
- ◆ Journals
- ◆ Group "Greece as Text" Journal/Video Anthology
- ◆ Four-page "We Are All Greeks" Reflective Paper

Faculty: Prof. Vonder Bruegge is a faculty member in NWC's Religion Department. He is excited to lead the SSA to Greece, which also happens to be the first Honors Program SSA.

Passport and Visa: For U.S. citizens, a passport is required for entry into Greece; a visa is not required for tourist stays of less than 90 days. Information on how to obtain a passport is available from the Global Education Center or the State Department web site at <http://travel.state.gov/>.

Location

The program will primarily take place in Athens and the surrounding areas of Nafplio. Students will also be able to visit Delphi and Meteora.

Housing and Meals

While in Greece, students will stay in hotels.

Excursions

This program includes a variety of tours to world heritage sites, including: the Acropolis, Corinth, Mycenae, the Oracle of Delphi, and Meteora.

Program Cost

Approximately $3600. This price includes four credits (discounted at 1/2 off tuition) and all direct costs (airfare, food, lodging, entrance fees).

Payment Deadline

After determination of the final program fee, on or around April 1, the SSAO will send out billings. Deadline for payment is May 1. Participants will be provided with the Payment, Cancellation, and Refund Policies upon acceptance in the program.

*** Information shared in this brochure is subject to change.

Application
